

By accepting these terms and conditions you enter into an agreement with Schibsted Marketing Services AB ("SMS") regarding advertising inventory purchase on behalf of the legal entity you represent and that is stated in the order form or other context in which these terms are referred to (the "Customer"). By placing an order (or confirming an offer) you, you confirm that you have the legal capacity to accept these terms on behalf of the Customer. The order and these terms and conditions together constitute the agreement (the "Agreement"). The Customer and Schibsted are jointly referred to as the Parties and individually as a Party.

The Agreement covers all advertisement products and services provided by SMS unless additional terms are provided, including both advertising inventory on domains owned by SMS and advertising inventory on domains not owned by SMS but which is managed and sold by SMS. In case the Customer wishes to purchase production of creative content (such as native advertisement) the terms and conditions of Appendix 1 apply.

The Agreement does not involve an obligation for SMS to deliver advertising services to the Customer, and new orders can be denied without justification. SMS may remove advertising inventory at their own discretion, as well as cancel purchase orders in whole or in part unless otherwise agreed between the Parties in writing. In such cases, the Customer will be refunded any pre-paid orders or a proportional amount of pre-paid orders.

SMS has a group-wide assignment within the Schibsted Group, to handle the sale and delivery of advertisement. SMS has the authority to manage and sell advertising inventory that SMS offers, as made available for order from time to time. Companies will however often be editorial independent publishers, whose independence in their publishing shall not be hindered according to the Agreement.

Booking and delivery of material

The Customer has the right to advertise in accordance with what is stated in the Agreement. The Customer undertakes to ensure that any advertising material is delivered to SMS in accordance with the specifications and requirements set out in SMS's general requirements for advertising:

Remuneration and payment

The Customer shall remunerate SMS for the advertisement in accordance with what is stated in the order. Payment shall be made on invoice or in advance if required by SMS. VAT shall be stated on the invoice. Payment shall be made 20 days net from invoice date if nothing else is stated in the order. In the event that an invoice is erroneous, and the reason for the error is wrongful reporting or information provided by the Customer, SMS reserves the right to use the original due date also for the new invoice. SMS may require advance payment for advertising purchases also after an order is made.

Cancellation or rescheduling

If any advertisement order is canceled or rescheduled later than 10 business days prior to the publication, SMS reserves the right to charge an amount equivalent to 50 % of the total amount. The Customer shall compensate SMS and the Companies for any direct and indirect damage (including agent costs, fees and other costs) suffered as a result of the Customer's advertising not being in accordance with what is stated in this Agreement.

The Customer is responsible for all advertisements published. The Customer's obligation to compensate SMS or the Companies in accordance with this paragraph thus also applies to the publication of an advertisement which SMS and/or a Company has reviewed without any objection.
